

Dear Kat,

Thanks for reading my materials. Because everyone needs a cause to which "one can devote himself or herself to". I chose to write. And I write every day. Sometimes, simply to edit, correct and finish a work. Other times to begin a new work.

Kat you did noticed that: I am looking for "Someone", a significant other; but others don't see it or get it. Thus, I need a friend and only a friend to help push that "AGENDA", to make someone special see. Even though you are in Europe. The facilities you have, to do things on the Internet, I do not have. So do you see the importance of this need?Can sweetheart understand?

Kat, Thanks Again For the Shoutout, And Recognition.
