The Grimm Reaper

By the Grim Reaper

Grimm Reaper knockin, guess I gotta go,
things come back around, you reap what you sow,
He's here! time to pack up and go,
death awaits us all, they say "you never know."
He's waiting! hurry up and pack them bags,
you've been defeated, time to wave that flag.
No need to run, nor make him wait,
sins are now repaid, right behind hell's gates.
Lookin over your life, and where you've been,
Grimm givin goosebumps, blood boiling under your skin.
Biting on your knuckles, pullin out your hair,
no matter where you go, death is always there.
sleep is becoming less and less, pleasant dreams are few,
The real dark Knight has come, and he came for you.
Eyes wide open, insomnia is lurking about,
nightmares are too many, for you to even count.
you stay restless, body way too fatigued,
try to dodge the reaper? better stay in your league.
Hyperventilating, the reaper has your chances slim,
cant go to another state, you cant run from him!
Grimm Reaper has taken over, for he's well known,
came to take over your life, you cant breathe on your own who you think you foolin? better be a light sleeper,
He's coming like the wind, it's the grim reaper!
