

And Then There's God
by: Xzyzst (exist)

Most people enjoy watching me fight
Can't wait to read the next piece I write
Gather to hear me speak, Rap and sing
They even tell me how good I look, dressed in just about anything
Call me for help, and experience my, tenacity
Expect me to be the game changer in any capacity
Love to see me coming, both night and day
Yet, they hate me, because I'm gay.
And Then There's God.
