Hunger Strike

Today marks the first day of a planned Hunger Strike in the California Prison System.

If the Main Stream Press Does Not cover this, I want it to be known,
At least on the Internet, coming from A Prisoner in the TX System, who has been Damaged by long term solitary confinement. It fears. I only wish those men and their families Quick Settlement to their core Demand's.

Let It Be Known that I too have been Damaged by this type of torture and will be a voice for each man in California.
