* TURD STOMPER? *

In life are many challenges, and most of those are people worthy of the nickname "turd".

So how do you deal with a turd?

Plug your nose and hope it goes away?

Drop verbal litter over the turd hoping to cover it?

Flush it with a killer look and walk away?

Pass it to a so called friend?

* OR *

Are you a turd stomper?

Do you take on every turd with boots?

I use to be a turd stomper, until I realised I was spreading it and causing more stink. ☺

There's no right or wrong way to deal with someone you consider a turd, but I'm interested in your stories.

Who's got some awesome Turd Stomper stories?

Turd Stomper

I just showed back up at the Washington State Penitentiary.....

Turd CUS: I see your back

Me: Yup.

Turd CUS: Looks like headquarters knows only we have what it takes to deal with you.

Me: That's interesting given I spent 2 years here and none of you could control me.

Turd CUS: The only reason you left is because we wanted to give you a fresh start.

Me: That's curious, DOC HQ said I was transferred because you couldn't control me.

Turd CUS: We always have control.

Me: Ok, go suit up and let's get the party started, let's see your control over me.

Turd CUS: No, no, let's stay calm. We've been there, done that.

Me: I know, and I'll do it again.

Turd CUS: VIOLENCE NEVER WORKS.

ME: It always works.

Turd CUS: No, you just think it does.

ME: If you don't take me off these restrictions I'll go back to fighting you.

Turd CUS: I'll let you off if you promise not to assault my staff.

ME: I'll assault them if you don't take me off.

Turd CUS: I'll take you off.

ME: But violence NEVER works? I'm in control, not you.

Turd CUS: I'M IN CONTROL!

ME: No, you're yelling like a 2 yr. old so you're not in control.

Turd CUS: I'LL TEACH YOU!

ME: Okay.

Turd CUS: I'M SERIOUS!

ME: Okay (I walk away)
