

Mahbūbī Rahmā, you My Love are truly one Special and Unique Souls! For Seven plus you now you've been My Friend, My Confidante, My Love, Hope and Inspiration. The road has been rocky for the two of us; there has been serious trials, strains, and tribulations - things ever present in any relationship, especially one as Ours.

But, Even though prison walls and long miles divide us in physical sense - Our hearts & souls are ever entwined. I'm sure there are times you've felt the need (or) pressure to let it go and give up on Us; we both have; yet even through crucial and painful events together we have toiled and withstood the test and strain of time.

Love and determination you have shown me; true compassion and devotion you have given me - Unconditional Friendship and faith you've surrendered to me in every aspect and I am so fortunate and thankful.

You are One of (3) reasons that I've sought to re-form myself - that is to be a more humble and understanding person; to refrain from my <sup>once</sup> ~~more~~ violent attitude and acts; to welcome and embrace a change within for the better. You and My daughters have truly kept me alive & sane.

To you belongs my heart Baharā, ad injini-turn!

P.S Please post the newest drawings I sent you for all to see 😊
