

Carah,

Wow! Seen your post on the blog and I must say that I was quite moved within; My heart absolutely jumped with joy seeing that you'd taken time to send me a few lines! Thank you so very much for each and every posted beam of love you were thoughtful enough to deliver 😊.

I miss you so badly, My best friend and beloved daughter - "The Shining Star" so often in this darkened world in which I live. So often I've found myself sitting in the midst of depression; a depression so dark and consuming that existence itself seemed both senseless and disturbing at the same time; Then I'd receive a visit or kite from you and it'd be like a brilliant beam of Sun light cutting through the morbid darkness; or the ever bright Star Venus standing guard over me lending me guidance out of life's sea of melancholic suffocation!

Should I ponder an appropriate Nick name for you it would have to be Αγλαία Aglaia: The Brilliant and Shining One. Because you've be exactly this to me for (31 years) now! You've ever been a light of joy and love in my life; a beacon of inspiration and hope.

Joe and Christen I must say have been my reason to live, my courage to travel on this often crucial and hap-hazard road of life; and my strength to endure and survive the greatest and hardest of trials and tribulations behind these cold and uncaring prison walls.

Shine on My beloved Aglaia and know that you are ever loved and appreciated; that are without a doubt Precious and Rare!

Pax et amo vobiscum
Mi argenteum astrum

(Latin: Peace and love be with you)
My Silver Star.
