

Dearest Cynthia:

Please write me at my physical address,

Please send me a photograph,

Please let me know if you wear the aquamarine ring still?

Please know that you have never left me.

Please know that I miss you so.

Please.

Two streets over,
the love of a life.
Two lives seperated,
should have been my wife.

The memories stay,
never to go away,

Just a few words,
is all I ask.

Just a few thoughts,
could make me last.
