

Hello's, here's some poems I wrote. I hope you enjoy them.

Like a mirage in a desert
we want to believe A beautiful fantasy
we all wish to see Some place in our hearts
created in love
An end to the fighting
A washing away of the blood
A sign from the fifties
with gentle intent
How can we manifest it
we start from within

The Next Step

On a stormy night
As the rain beats down upon me
My soul screams
Why must I always struggle
My heart whispers
Quiet fool. At the end of this road
Awaits the love of your life
Despair defeated
I take the next step.
