California Shuts YAIL

A Resident of Corcoran Shu ends his 25 day hunger strike, when the building Sergeant surrendered to his demands (1) To grant everything that was in his appeals that were never even processed but instead found their way into the trash. All appeals were on property related offenses that were done against the inmate (2) Access to the Law Library as he was being denied over an extensive period of time - Needless to say he went to the Law library the same day his hunger strike ended (3) Be given his metered envelopes that staff were withholding from him. Yip, Yip Hurray an attempted suicide score a home run.
