Thank You for writing. I'm know longer in that dark state of mind I moved on to bigger and better thoughts Yes when I write Poems I feel much better about MY self it gives me hope and it also helps other People out I hope to touch People with MY Poems like music People relate to words and I hope MY words effect them in a good way.

This is to all of BCB Viewer I hope life is treating all of You right I'm still fighting for MY life trying to find something to get back on Court on I still writing MY Poems and Music I still reading my books Got to keep MY mind on track and fill with good things. I gotta stay Positive in these walls and hope something or ~~someone~~ someone good come MY way. If anyone of You having bad luck I hope something good come Your way I'm going to end ~~this~~ this with a Poem I wrote I hope You like it
