

RANT TO RAVE

4 Conscious Reflection, 8.2013

And, so! Here I Am...
I'm out of IMU. Faced with More bull shit (if you don't mind me saying so) then I can

HOW WE HATE OURSELVES.
WE VICARIOUSLY LIVE.

Imagine,
Sitting in the unit of the person who put me in IMU. I've only been here 1 month as of today's dated, 7.26.13. And I've had to avoid incidents orchestrated by the administration.
They had potential to blow way out of proportion.
The crazy thing is they moved Kay Dub over here two days ago. Kay Dub is a South end, DW BGD or GD...
He was 1 of the ones who made a false report against me which cause me to spend a year in IMU-South.
These white people was ready for us to start killing each other.
Understanding the situation as a setup, I filed a kite immediately on the matter and waited for this Neardowell to say something to me. When he did, I told him straight up!
Don't say anything to me, I'm not trying to talk to you at all...

My cellmate is Michael. His Black ~~white~~ with white descendant.
Meaning, his black physical feature are dominant.
His mother is a white patricidal female. She raised him to hate himself and everything Black unless you're like him.
Sometimes I really want to fuck him off. But at 38 I often ask myself would it be worse.
Being, he is self hating, destructive. He is young and I can be a positive black example, a positive Negro Male example...
It's hard being mature but I believe it will pay off in the end...
We hate who we are...

Today is 7.28.13 and Michael went to bat for me.
When he seen that a heavily burned white inmate name Michael (who everybody calls burny, who I refer to as el cappy creeps.)
start doing his sicko sexual predatory homosexual behavior towards me.
Seeq they're ways to kick his ass without touching him.
Because if you touch this sicko you're surely to get a good at least two good years in IMU...
I hate the politics of the matter, it's my belief that sicko's like this deserve a nice well place ass whoppin to straighten him or them out, especially when they have it coming.
But you have correctional officers up in here who support such behavior and award inmate like el cappy creeps with the jobs and award inmate like el cappy creeps with the jobs and single man housing and soforth for their behavior and their willingness to fabricate a really good lie on a mother f*cker...
In everything! They're trying to turn me into a Tiddle Tell...
But they are going to loose...
I don't know why they don't think I'm capable of drawing to the right mental conclusion that they are trying to manipulate me.
Leading, false promises, intimidations tacits, entrapment, their nothing that your government officials will not do to show you their unseen face.

OKay! So, I see you now...!

RANT TO RAVE

7-30-13 I never once proposition her.
In fact she started in on me with Kristen, the very first day.
It was never about my mental health. Her and many other was trying to judge my mental stability for the purpose of depleting it.
As if, she and others possess the ability to strip away my good mental judgment and give it to the man of their choosing.
As if, she and so many other was trying to foster genuine sensual, emotional feeling under a illegitimate, deceptive guise.
It's not possible for me to figure this all out. I don't possess the human instincts to play a bitch, a mother fucker. So they believe.
So, how do you destroy a monster without becoming the monster you destroyed? By understanding that the abyss look inside every living being and in order to survive you must acknowledge that hideous creature that lies within side you.
The sick ass creeps approach me when I was inside a shower, off a bogus report made by Becky trying to manipulate me.
What! He couldn't wait until I was in my cell, or call me out of my cell to a interview room...
He had to talk to me while I was in the showers...
It's no way I'm going to talk to that mother fucker...
The sadest thing is that these prison officials have been doing this to people for years. Breaking them down causing a mental psychosis, and sending them home to you. These mother fuckers deserve to be executed... But! They are government officials, "The Government". Now I understand why the right to bear is so important.
So lets say that for some bazaar reason that people do possess
the physical ability to create genuine raise emotional behavior pattern in people. Then steal it, harvest it, for barter.
Then it's also equally possible that they can be stop.
What I don't want them to misunderstand at all is that I would find any of them remotely attractive. Just maybe you have met your match.
Decent, civilize, mature human being don't suck animals.
They study them. Write about them. They expose them and move on with their lives. The sadest thing is, that they "!!!"
wish to be human beings. "But they fail to cut the cake..."
So again I find myself up in um Estes office. This is in fact a cense and decreased order. she believes that you're putting personal feeling involve an she wish you to stop.
What? I said. Did you look at the kite... That's completing business...
Oh! my God you people are truly crazy I suit to my-self.
Read the kite. Did you read the kite. It's all fun and games to them. They have been doing this for so long to so many peoples that make legitimate life mistakes. ~~Am~~ Am I going to get a response to that kite. No Estes says, this stop here. Oh yeah!
then what are the courts for?
If it's not one thing it's another with these white people and confuse blacks...
You, no. Come to think of it, I can recall when I was listening to a NPR Report, on Israeli Army Vets out of Fort Lewis Washington, seeking mental health and speech therapy treatment, and doing the broad casting of the skit you can observe the mental health / speech therapist doing her thing. Check it out and ~~you~~ determine for yourself.
If you don't know their behavior you want PAY ANY Attention to it.
