

Do as thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law.

The two most Volatile topics in the world is "Politics & Religion"; Millions upon Millions have died for their political differences; and even more have died in the name of some divine god.

From Ba'al, Ishtar, YHWH, Jesus (or) Allah - So many have been slaughtered mercilessly from Pharaoh, Nero, Alexander, Julius Caesar or even more - innocents have been tortured & crushed beneath the feet of gods & kings; Presidents & Dictators alike.

if everyone's right - who the hell is wrong? Hell! what does it even matter?

Why must one be forced to believe in anything other than themselves as their loved ones? Why can't one simply believe in the principle laws of the Universe alone - "what one sends out, the same will be returned;" thus all have the universal right to live in harmony with nature as under no ones rule but their own.

Man will destroy himself long before global warming if we don't learn to live in tolerance! Give and let live; enjoy life for what it offers us today - yesterday has passed and must be laid to rest, while tomorrow awaits in the womb of time; the child of today waits to be nurtured as guided, thus let us seek to do so; it's all we have for certain - once it has grown as slipped away we can't ever retrieve it.

Give positively in today leaving no room for negativity no regrets!

Love is the law, love under will.
