

Heaven Sent

Gary Field
DC# M05398
Dorm E1-103
Century C.I.
Century, FL 32535

1-1

Can you imagine what young Mary thought,
When first she gazed into her baby's eyes.
And what emotions in her throat were caught,
When first she heard her little baby's cries.

She was just a young girl when she gave birth,
But she'd believed what the angel had said.
The "word of God" would dwell upon the earth,
"Joy to the world -" would soon be herald.

The son of God was nestled to her chest,
How overwhelmed she must have felt by love.
The love of God - had been made manifest,
The King that prophets had been speaking of.

He would be wounded for our transgression,
But the word of God had also revealed.
Through our belief, and through our confessions,
By his stripes - we could all be healed.

But she was just a young girl in that day,
A young mother - who knew what it meant.
To hear the word of God - and to obey,
Then hold a gift that was Heaven Sent.

Luke 2:7 "And she brought forth her firstborn son and wrapped him in a swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger ..."

Gary Field
www.betweenthebars.org/blogs/1398

Printed by Freddie Lee Haliburton, Sr.