

"Ever so Close"

Here's my Rose to you
I knew you'd be here
Female curiosity stirs
Only sinful if it gives Birth my dear
You once said I was very good looking - and a keeper
Needless to say your encouragement
Got me on track
Banners in gear - needing to cast wild outs
But I know that can never be
I am the given Rose
And I'm loosing a Petal each day
My time is numbered as my colon has spoken so
Darkness is coming ever so closer
