Dear Ms. Jolly:

Please be advised that as of the following date August 08, 2013, approximate time 05:00 p.m., I am in receipt of your latest communication to me, and as always I'm delighted to know we're still communicating.

However, I am extremely disappointed to hear that your son Randy's light of hope and inspiration towards obtaining a little bit of relief from his unjust sentence has become rather dark nevertheless with a mom like LindCJolly I'm absolutely sure that he will be alright.

Listen Ms. Jolly, at one time I use to pay guy's to litigate my criminal conviction, and thanks to a guy name Scotty's advise, that I should learn the language of law, well here I am now litigating criminal and civil law.

At one time I layed down in the area of law, and I didn't go anywhere near the facility library, however, I jumpted right back into the fight. Anyone can learn law, and at one time no one knew law not even the famous Johnny Chocrin. I think I pecked his name right. One things absolutely sure Ms. Jolly, and that I can promise you is [no] lie, is when they sent Randy where he is now, they sent him there to do absolutey every single bit of the crue and unusual unjust sentence that they gave to him. As far as the lawyer you were just paying, he probably just took your money, which you already know he was doing. However Linda, dont look at all attorney's in a negative light, because there are some extremely good attorney's out there, they are just far and few of them.

I was robbed by a couple of attorney's and thanks to the last dump truck I had, I'm now fighting a Lien Notice in the amount of $10,000, which is in violation of the California Penal Code Statute as applicable to me in a civil proceedings. Nevertheless these people will take my money, your money and anyone elses money they can get they're hands on Ms. Jolly.

I'll be out of here really soon Ms. Jolly, and I would be extremely delighted to assist you and Randy with anykind of legal assistance I could extend, but I have to get out of here wherein I have accessability to the appropriate legal material I need and dont really have access to. I spoke to the San Diego County Public Defender Supervisor and was informed by her, that she would fast track my case, and get me the hell out of here Ms. Jolly. I'm extremely apologetic that it took me so long to respond, I was transfered June 18, 2013, and relocated a hundred miles north to another plantation. Anyway Ms. Jolly stay on this chanel, make absolutely sure you dont turn off of it, and hold on a little while and I probably cas help you, to help your son Randy's legal situation. Take care and untill I hear from you

Sincerely

Allan Tracy Gilmore
