

Why I Knew the World
Wasn't Going to End on May 21, 2011
Part I

Reverend Harold Camping predicted that the Lord would return and that the world would end on May 21st at 6:00 PM local time (revolving around the globe, jumping from time zone to time zone). I didn't have the opportunity to talk to Rev. Camping about this, so I thought I would check and see what Jesus had to say about it.
