Tell me where to send the check so you can see real self-loathing anger. EF was thrown to the wolves - for all to see - and I am "unpleasant"? Try to help your friends instead of taking their money. Use my money for a mirror. Save young EF from the wolfe before it is too late mommy.

Dear "IT"

Thanks for your insightful viewpoint. You are so right about the "accountability" aspect. I appreciate you getting the point. Never fear your posts are safe here! (-; I like your style!!
