

I got your message a few days ago, sorry it took so long for me to get back to you, but I had to get some envelopes so that I could post a message to you. I hope that you'll keep in contact from now on. I've been reaching out, but never getting responses so I didn't know what to think, I tried your number and it says restricted, so try to put money on your phone. I hear your a club owner now is that true? Are you still married? How is my niece? Man, it's so much I want to ask and talk about, but this is all public, so I can't. I know you're busy, but if possible send me a letter by snail mail, if you don't have my address its: Amondo Duckworth - 418846
