

Mom,

Wow, Its been like at least 2 or more years since I last heard from you so its good to know your O.K. I never heard from you since about 3/2011 when I got out the hole in Basabel. I been in this prison over a year now and should be leave in soon.

Prison has been prison and for the most part everyday im just trying to stay sane, positive, and focused on freedom. If nothing else, Ive learned alot about myself since I been down and im excited to live life knowing the true me and what im in this world to do.

Im unsure what you means by not letting Aunty fool me... She's told me nothing bad about you. A couple ^{times} she told me you contacted her by e-mail saying you were gonna write me and would let me know your alive and breathing. For the most part she's remained very positive about alot despite what she's going through and everyone else.

Everyone is grown now MOM... we're all trying to find ways to uplift, motivate, and encourage one another to be productive in this world. Theres no room to tare one another down... life is too short.

Im Glad you reached out to me and its a joy to know your O.K. You can write whenever you like and send my love to everyone + take care O.K.

Love Your Son,
Marcus

P.S. Tried your #... Doesn't go through.
