"We At War"

We at war,

The blood pours,

Flooding the streets when the consumers sip to much alcohol.

We at war,

The blocks are flooded with rocks.

Produces money in knots.

So greed starts to breathe,

Then comes out the glocks,

Multiple gun shots,

So another heart stops.

We at war,

Our neighborhoods are controlled by gang-bangers.

Fighting about left or right,

OR different colors.

So we kill each other.

Sometimes the bullets stray,

So death comes to a innocent father or Mother,

Or someone's brother or sister.

We at war,

In our communities on every corner there's a liquor store.

Domestic violence soars,

All is called.

Now steps in the law,

Families separated — torn apart,

Cause comes the grips of Social-Services paws.

We at war,

Christians praying - Muslims in prostration ,

Buddhists deep in meditation .

Followers of religion give out donations .

The leaders are accepting ,

To their ownelves goes the donations .

While the followers stay poor ,

And they collect millions .

We at War ,

Native tongues are foreign to their own people .

Traditions and Cultures being lost ,

Taught that their ways are evil .

This is the death of different Civilizations ,

It's hard for a revival .

We at War ,

Fast life and big rims ,

Has stolen our children's vision .

They no longer seek education ,

But seek the fast living .

So they are dumb ,

Dumb to the politics, and economics ,

And laws of the world changing .

Now they are behind in education ,

Or seek education in prisons .

We at War ,

Jesus - Mohammad - Buddha ,

Taught us to know thy self .

But we forgot ~~ourselves~~, ourselves
We let evil take over ~~ourselves~~ ourselves,
So lets follow their footsteps for help,
So we can find ~~ourselves~~ ourselves.
And reclaim ~~ourselves~~ ourselves.
Then we can Free our communities,
And free our streets,
And free our world,
And Free our people and our ~~selves~~ selves
Luz the greatest War is within our ~~selves~~ selves
Conquer that,
Then everything and everyone,
You can change and help.
