

R U still there?

far as U lettin Jesus down in your thoughts of how U were supposed to be. Jesus LOVES U. so that's what it is. He said while we were yet sinners He died for us. So with all OUR shortcomings God is there to forgive us our wrongs committed against Him. Promise. Nothing U did is unforgiveable. Promise. Jesus is a God of a second chance. Though He came down as a man His first & foremost nature is GOD. He LOVES U so much dawnnorton. He can't stop thinking about U. Promise. Even through your mistakes He was right there loving you. Promise the great part is when U come to Him He don't throw your faults & failures in your face He just continues to love U unconditionally :):):) U R His beloved daughter Promise. He wrote Proverbs 31:10-31 just 4

~~Psalm 144:12 just 4~~

U He wrote Proverbs 14:1 just 4 U He wrote Psalm 144:12 just 4 U He wrote 1st Timothy 2:15 just 4 U yes U can do it all but U can do more with Jesus :):):)

IF U let Him down, nows the time 2 let Him UP :):):)

man i just wanna tell U all I know about Jesus. As I was saddened by your comment that u "don't know alot about Jesus" life is worth the living & it is well with my soul :):):) i was born 4 U (& others) so i would very much like to tell you all i know about Jesus,if that's okay with U.

please dawnnorton if U have any questions or comments about Jesus please feel free to ask me.

I pray the enclosed sermon helps U to know Him a lil bit better :)

far as A LETTER FOR MY DAUGHTERS it was spose to be a forthcoming book,but this morning i was inspired by your search for it's posting to make it a "blog" :) just started penning it this morning while awaiting my turn to do a UA. I anticipated it will be encouraging & that it will inspire women especially those i've hurt personally May God use it to encourage women & let them know who they are. & help them appreciate being feminine & use their beauty & body & brains correctly. I want them to know how much of a blessing they truly are to the world. heads up the blog will be written by a "friend of mine" as well so when it's posted pay detailed attention to WHO signed the letters k?

it will be posted as time & resources allow thanks for your patience please know WE are inspired by your anticipation of said venture here's a quote God just gave me to include which further promotes A LETTER TO MY DAUGHTERS - "AS THE FATHER SO THE HOUSE."

can u tell I'm rushing to get this posted asap?
i shared your poem with a friend & he asked to copy it!!!:):):) is that okay. yes I liked it I'm a fan of poetry. don't worry thinking you're not a good writer I thought the same bout myself till others gave me compliments... I've learned that whatever u write from the heart is well written. as a writer i can tell u everytime i write to impress people i fail. if I don't pray b4 i speak i also fail to touch lives. my daughter writes like u. open & honest & sincere i sense-& i'm probably wrong!- but i sense a woman writing this that lived life making choices with her heart & emotions choices she felt were the wisest ones & still feels they were yet on the flip side she has no regrets despite the fact that choices made didn't net the rewards she sought. i sense she's still tryin to understand what "she" may have done wrong & why things didn't turn out as expected.
