

Needs to analyze situations carefully

September 06, 2013

To my viewers:

- We have to start analyzing situations better than we are in our society in America.

There is so many men getting cased up with these young girls for rape. Is it really rape or their trying to cover they buttocks before the parents find out. We are not doing proper investigation anymore. I am not talking about cases where there was horrific crime scene or aggravated circumstance involved. I am talking about young teenage girls who set out to have sex with male teachers and seniors in school. I been there when I was 13 years old.

I wanted to experience sex and wanted a man who would give me money. So I lost my virginity to 37 year old man. I did I hallow rape. when my mom find out, no.

I faced my responsibility of my action. Did I feel guilty and shame, yes. It was not all the guy fault because I engage willfully. I feel if society would start enforcing the law perjury and lying some of these rape charges would stop. A lot of these teenage girls and boys hallow this because they parents have gotten involved or they didn't get what they wanted out of the deal.

It's the same thing with the grown women today. Some know they out prostituting with cops etc. But when that person of interest don't do what they want. They blow the whistle by saying the Cop, judge

Or whomever raped them. While all this publicity is going on in the case. These women are rejoicing that what you get for not doing, what I wanted you to do. In the case of Teacher Stacey Rambold. I believe Chenice Morales seduce him into her trap. Next thing I think happened is Chenice Morales couldn't deal with the fact that she lied on this man. Now she would have to face him in court. Guess what in the truth would come out. I can't live with this guilt and shame. If I die I want have to deal with this. Nobody will never know what I did. Personally I don't believe that people should pass their judgement on any situation unless you have encounter similar situation in life. I can pass judgement because I been there. Why is Everybody is mad at that judge. To me he was making sense. I believe he analyzed the whole circumstance. Society want to say Poor old Chenice Morales. But the truth of the matter is that this individual knew what she was doing. She thought she could get away with it.
