Hello family, That's what I consider each of those who respond to my posts. Good or of different opinion. Each response has helped me grow.

I'm just so grateful for "Between the Bars" and what's come of this. At first, I really didn't think it would help. However, I didn't know what a blog was either. ☺

So today I'd like to post a prayer that "I" say very often each day. It takes me out of most rough spots I face each day. It's become a special tool for me and my serenity and sobriety. We like to start our 12 Step meetings with this prayer so I know there are people out there who share my feelings.

"Mon Dieu, donne-moi la sérénité d'accepter les choses que je ne peux changer, le courage de changer les choses que je peux, et la sagesse d'en connaître la différence."

Oh I'm sorry, please go to page 1000 for the English translation ☺

"God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, The courage to change the things I can, And the wisdom to know the difference"

By the way, The first translation was French and that was for my friend Dr. Katz Hudson
Hey Katz,

This next piece of my post is for Bookman, AKA Dennis. Dennis I don't think they will get this wrong or delete it. You are absolutely ~~wrote~~^{fight} about people using The Bible to BASH US. So here's my Challenge Fill in the Quote People only Red Letter words of Jesus"
