Whoa, easy girl! Are you trying to provoke my emotional response to your ludicrous question: "Do you hide behind words so that others cannot see the real you?" — Me? How ironic!

And of all my cathartic blogs, you pose your inane notion of my obscuring intent upon this particular soliloquy: Who Am I, Really. Really?!

If anybody in cyberspace cannot get a good glimpse of the "real" me within that introspective display, then be that as it may ... I will certainly be damned if I'm ever at a loss for words, so I wonder if you will be a dear and help me here.

Would you like to play-out the mystery of Narcissus and Echo, here on the site — please? Do you know the fable? Fabulous! Then you know the seer said there is a way to escape old age. This is my sole intent, girl. To drink my fill from that deep well of reflection: "Gnothi Seauton".

Care to share a drink with me here? Then we will see who is being real, wont we?

Be blessed.
