Thanks for your reply. I love Philly and it's where I was born. So I always think about Philly. Even when I'm watching television and they show Philly on television, I get all excited! I recently just watched that Meek Mills movie called "Streets." They showed a lot of Philly, Berk Street, Southwest Philly, William Penn Statue, Market Street, etc. Are you from Philly? Everytime I see a big sporting event on television like the Mayweather fight, super bowl, NBA finals, world series, etc., I start sweating because I know the money that can be made at those events. I saw on ESPN where they said that the tickets for the Texas A&M and Alabama game were going for $3,000 - $5,500 each!
