

NOW YOU SEE ME

For anyone who thought that I would die here broken.
Physics explains energy is & will always be,
it only transforms. So you now understand what you consider evil & good "I EXPERIENCE."

There's only ONE MIND.

Kill the image maker. Fools, didn't you know I AM IMMORTAL. You are witness for I've transcended. You are witness
"I RESURRECTED." I AM NOW! I EXIST FOREVER
MORE, BEYOND A DREAM.

I wanna give my best, but the stickiness clouds
my efforts. Nobody starts out destructive, lost on the path, addicted to ignorance since a baby.
Scared time is running out before I find my way,
to late to pray, black hole nothing escapes.
Forbidden fruit swallows the tree whole. Stories
never told, how we survived the cold.
Outside the pack a wolf still dreams.

I blame you, makes me a victim,
my ego can't accept this. To solve the riddle, I take responsibility.
As you think so you build your existence,
started off pure a child's dreams, then nightmare, rage, lust. Death I bring!
You gotta die to rise. If you meet the one who escaped from hell,
would you be surprised?

Granted access to what you could never comprehend. Begin understand,
my past is greater than your future.
In the present my desire is to demand, push ahead of time. I put work in
to get to this point,
faced death & my fears.
I am an ancient tale, the one
hell can't hold.
