

"DECEPTION"

So often - I wonder are all men pigs as I've heard women say? IF I were to measure by males in prison only - then I would definitely agree with them in general terms. Here lies can be more than abuse - Even deadly. Deception seems to curve all good intentions here. (Sad but true)

I think IF I were a woman - I'd definitely be a lesbian - AND I'd be a damn good one too. Perhaps deception leads them astray too???

To be open and honest here - means exposure attracting human vultures that feed on every word spoken then digesting them for personal gain. Here my life is surrounded by pigs - basking in deception - You just might be right ladies Lesbianism Rocks - until you hit a few bumps in the road, but at least you don't have violent pigs that you attract
