Im Now At J.B.C.C

Greetings, I have been transferred to a Minimum Security Prison. Guys here dress in common clothes, go to work on the streets, and we're not even locked down... Its not bad here at all.

For now im doing Janitor work for 30 days then I'll be given permission to go off grounds. I just got the paperwork to get a Social Security card and Birth Certificate for an I.D.

I was hoping to be on my way home but since im here I intend on just making the best out of it. Its some good opportunities here so I plan to take advantage of them.

I'll keep you all posted... Wish me luck
