

Did I Have

I did have love just once in this lost life I call my own. From an Angel yeah you heard me right. But I lost her one stoned out Night.
When I left instead of holding her tight. I still remember that one last kiss, that one last hug, even her last words to me that Night. Because that's the Night I lost the love of my life. Now 14 years have passed, and she finds me at last angry and mad. And I think she even wants to kick my ass.....

Lil Bit I hope you like this one and I hope to hear from you soon. I just seen parole and they have me under review right now. But I know I'm not going to make it so its cool
