Yes, Loneliness is one of the sentiments, I deal with in a place such as this. I try to stay positive and it is not easy. writing gave me a way out and a way in.

I also have other pieces like this, that have not been published, or made public.

However, thanks for the compliments and for keeping a keen eye for things like this. Are you a writer too, or just browsing thru?

Keep the peace and the faith!

Childeric,
