

Merry Christmas!

First I want to thank God for blessing ^{me} to continue to have a sane mind and good health for all the years that I have been in here.

Next, I want to wish all my family and friends and all the people who never gave up on me and stuck with me through thick and thin, a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. I really don't have much money for postage, so I just decided to write everyone one letter through my blog page.

To my big Sis, I want to wish you and your husband R, a merry Christmas and happy New Year. Tell my two nieces I said, "hi", and tell the younger one that I hope she continues to do well in school. Tell her that, "I think that is so cool!" 😊

To Dave C., wishing you and your family the best through the holidays! I really appreciate everything that you've done for me over the years. If you're still going to send the clothing order to me, here is the website address I forgot to send you: nevadapackages.com, the code for the shoes are: 52944N (size 12-4E), the sweatpants code number is: 50604V (size 3XL). The order has to be in before December 31, 2013. Thank you so much!

Deb S., you're a wonderful friend! I always smile when I get a letter from you! 😊 Wishing you the best also during ~~these~~ ^{this} holiday season.

Rhonda A., out in Sacramento, wishing you the best through all these holiday seasons. I laugh when I think back of the fun we had when we were younger. 😊

Rebecca S., in Mishawaka, Indiana, Merry Christmas to you also! Hope you graduate and get that degree in accounting that you're working on.

I would also like to give a special thanks and holiday greeting to the people at the MIT Center for allowing me the opportunity to share my words through a blog with the outside world. Thanks!

Also wishing everyone else a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Years who is also reading my blog pages.

If anyone would like to send me pics or an email, you can do so by going to www.jpap.com - I will receive your letter within one day, but I will not be able to email you back. So if you need me to respond or write back to you, please don't forget to leave your address in the email letter you send to me. My email
