

Dear Areadiaego,

11-19-13

Thank you so much for your comments & bless your heart for the birthday wishes! I hope you're doing well.

How are things in the UK? I just finished reading "World Without End" set in 14th century England. I love reading books of that sort & am really into English history.

Do you have Thanksgiving there? You should start it. It's a great holiday.

Hugs,
