Take my place

ByrdbeeEjona

I live in a closet, but I'll be moving soon, where I stay it's probably the same size as your bathroom.
I can look out my window, I can see a parking lot, see a freeway on the yard, electric fence stay hot, I also got a roommate, and our rent is free, everybody in this apartment wear the same color as me, me and my roommate, both can't be on the floor, at the same time, and our sink is right next to the door.
we also got a toilet, right next to the bed, I sleep on the top bunk, I can sit up and hit my head, I got a locker full of food, but it's not yet full, it cost me 5 bucks, to get one of my teeth pulled.
All my appliances I got, are all transparent to get to my apartment, you gotta have clearance. most of my neighbors, got attitudes like the grinch, and the T.V. I have, is only a 13 inch.
There's a few people here, that show me love, I got appliances with brand names, people haven't heard of, mail comes to the door, the shower is downstairs so is the payphone, call my moms when I go down there it's time to pack my things, move to another location, because here! there's a gang of civil rights violations.
if you need a room, in prison! believe me, they got space come get in my bed I'll leave, you can take my place.
