My Tears

Byddae Egan

Alicia Keys say "tears always win", my tears leave me defeated, my tears are not of joy, but my tears leave me cheated.
Tears are so many, like the yellow lines on the street, or even the waves of the sea, or the sand on the beach, my tears fall during the day, I even cry in my sleep.
my tears never win, tear tracks on my cheeks.
my tears have no shelter, like a homeless man in the rain, my tears are all alone, you can definitely see my pain.
my tears keeps me in a lonely state of depression, my tears keep me with anxiety, my tears keep me stressing.
my tears! let's just say that my tears will flow, my tears will come down they say "you reap what you sow," when my tears fall, alot will say I'm not strong, but my tears keep me sane, when I been done wrong.
Everytime I turn around, somebody wants to accuse, so my tears fall down, when I been misused.
dont know how I'll win, when my spirit gets crushed, dont know when I wont cry anymore, when is it enough?
so if you see me, and my eyes are bloodshot,
I express myself through my pen, when I cry alot.
It's never anything pleasant, I've learned to face my tears, even in my nightmares, you can see the pain in my tears,
