

Still afraid to use your full name: I understand you spent too much time in harm's way. Now your time is spent reading prisoner blogs: very sad. You've done your share of "catching", I can tell, but like I told you before we can have that face to face whenever you decide you no longer need to hide in cyberspace. There is no "love thy devil" in the Bible and I report the evil of the DOC as best I can: no fear of harm's way. FULL NAME: Timothy J. Muise!
