Hello Loyal Readers And those who Care for Billy.

HAPPY Thanksgiving first.

I At least Hope you spend it any way that brings you An Type of Peace.

I Guess the big New first. I am no longer at the Huntsville (Walls) any more. There is a good and bad to this, Although it's Every bit of my Spiritual program & teaching from my very missed Woody not to Act out on my Resentment over this whole thing. First I did have some responsibility in this move, but I got tired of the Abuse brought Against me from certain officers at Walls unit and the new Major allowing it to happen. So I went to the proper people's in this and filed the paper work. This is into trying to resolve this issue by simply going to the Nothing seem to work, so I went outside the system and rang a bell I knew would be heard. The new Major heard it and clear. So her response was to ship me first to a unit that had no business being on and when I saw the P.A. She agreed so much so, she immediately shipped me back. That didn't go over well. I was there one night and the officer I filed former complaint on, left his post to continue his harassment.

Then me being of the lowest custody, was chained to a high level disciplinary inmate who just was in a riot, and happened to hate gay's. Go figure! That was against every rule these people write, and they knowingly placed me in serious harm's way to retaliate against me. As soon as I Her back

From my Lawyer AND Trusted Advisor with Just Detention International, formally Stop Prison Rape, I will name all the NAMES on this blog and the two newspapers I do write for. N So much for me any more, but I left behind members of the Gay Community there that will be placed in Harms way and figures Its just part of doing time. IT'S NOT!

I SAID GOOD AND BAD- WILL SAY THAT WAS THE BAD- THE GOOD.

This Program really does work. I've really had to work my AISE OFF because I haven't had a meeting since that night I WAS Shipped. I really do need a meeting. I HAVE b in contact with my other Sponsor in New York, still waiting for a repl Hey Tony! - Another good, I get to start taking programs for my Release f up out this hell, well was given a list of what I needed and I DONE All but one, and I did paper work yesterday Afternoon, that.

This place is huge, it gets alot colder in this part of tex Last night we got down to 32°, before turkey day, what's up with that?

Look, I'm going to need your prayers and wishes, this ne stretch of time, Scarey, but with the tools Woody and the Three W Ladies, Hey sis, have taught me I believe its going to be exciting.

As Will Always ^{LIKED} n to SAY, "A real man fights from on his knee Thanks Dude. John Boy, I have a pole in front of my cell here Too. 😊 Hello to mom and Granny. To the rest of my Pantfinder-Saviours I miss every one of you, I ache right down to my gut on Sunday's or Friday's.

BOOK MAN "FOREVER"!

Hey Bro you have a letter on the way to the House I won't be able to call anymore, so more writing OK for both of us. How's the treatments going with you? How's the Grandsons, I hope you get some holiday face time with them.

OK. This is the hardest part of my E-mail-Blog. MOM, DAD not much longer, I hope, thanks for the E-cards. Best thing was the toilet paper. Sorry mom 😊

To my Sister PAYNE, Hey How's it going, hope you have quit. Tell Robert I said Hello and Thanks.

To my Brother Bobby, Dude I'm so happy for you, continue growing and the things that will be revealed will blow your mind. Work Hard, Sept. is not that far off and you'll graduate NOW!

I keep thinking I left someone out but, for the LIFE OF ME, oh ya, my Better half, Twin Sister Charles Did I Spell That right?, No Yall Character is not my Twin but there's been times in our lives you couldn't tell Any body WE weren't. Most of my childlessness Self centered life She has been my older sister, Someone who's suited up and Showed up for me Even when I d. don't want her around. Those Times She WAS "fucking" with my high. (Sorry Ford, Mike, Kevin Im still watching it. Anyway Sis, I know that pain Your at. that bottom got so good to me I hung curtains. Know matter how many times you threw me that life line I always crawled back to what felt like home. IF I WAS there right now we could be neighbors, so Billy, your Big Brother Loves you, Needs you, but mostly I want you in my life. HOWEVER Sis, IF I'm EVER going to be here for you, EVE got to remember, daily, IF I want to LIVE, I have to be free of Anger. "The grouch and the brain storm were not for us. They may be dubious luxury of normal men, but for alcoholics these things are poison". I'll add drug addict to that of my own, but Sis for me to be just a little mad I'll go half cocked I have to watch it, that's why I didn't play that new Major's Game and get a disciplinary case. Then She could have used that Against me. Slow and EASY, but my hand is out to you!!!

TO ANY AND ALL - Happy Turkey Day!

2011 / PEACE,
Billy
