Being Like You (1. Corinthians 4:16) Beletkeija

Lord I want to be like you, but tell me how can I be?
For you are perfect, and there isn't a perfect bone in me.
Lord my spirit is willing, but my flesh is weak, and satan clouds my judgment, everytime you try to speak.
I want to be like you, but I'm so full of sin, who or what should I blame, do I blame what lies within?
Am I not worthy, do my sin keep me trapped?
is it cause I don't pray like I should, or cause I listen to rap?
Is it cause I curse Lord, is it cause my mind lust?
can you deliver me, even though sometimes I lack in trust is it cause I have an attitude, is it cause I lie?
is it cause I walk in darkness, and darkness blind my eyes?
Lord I want to be like you, but where do I start?
first I'll ask for forgiveness, and ask you to cleanse my heart,
I know you died for me, I know that I'm saved, but I have no time for you, and the wrong things are praised.
is it cause I'm arrogant, is it because I boast?
is it cause I brag, and it's your word I need most.
I don't know, if the love of my family can get me through, you're the only one I need, that's why I'm leaning on you,
you are my help, no other help will do, because other help will only make me look like a fool Please help me Lord, before it gets too late, it's you who I want to be like, it's you I want to imitate!
