

It's Not About the Cash, It's About the Love

EVERYONE Please Remember that the most important thing about the holiday season is NOT about the gifts you give AND receive, it's about the time you spend with the friends AND family you love. Be generous to those who are in need of food AND shelter AND the ~~shelter~~ kids ☺ OPPS. I send you all my deepest AND most sincere wishes for a very happy holiday season. PEACE ☺ DONNY.

Here is a new poem I wrote with my friend, I hope you enjoy it ☺.

Stillbirth

Left within the walls of my insanity, wondering why this must be my reality
as I created my own world,

Now I sit and think of why these things must happen to me is it true that I am cursed.

To live my life within this cell harshness, pain and hopelessness rule why can't I end it all.

Who has a right to treat me like shit lost deep within my own thoughts lays a place where love has died.

This ~~x~~ death is consuming leaving me empty, but alive reaching through the smoke and ash.

P.S. between the bars,
Please return the portrait of me after you scan it in, THANKS ☺ DONNY.
