Dear Rita,

12-13-13

Howdy!

I am the youngest of 6 kids + I am estranged from them + all my other relatives. They have always treated me like crap. Only one friend stuck by me + I've known her since 1985. All my other "friends," some of whom I knew for even longer, all abandoned me. I don't think much of people like that either.

Otherwise, I don't have anyone. I've gotten some new penpals, but they usually don't last long. My ex-partner is in another prison. He claims to love me, but never has tried to stay in touch or do anything at all for anyone but himself. I was the one who saved all our personal property + paid to take care of it all even though he made much more money than I. Charming.

I am going to write you at the hotel. I hope you get it.

I hope you have a great Christmas! I wish I could go shopping with you - I love shopping!

Much love,
