

Daniel Gwynn Blog Update

Subject: "Holiday Shakedown"

Date: 12/6/13

Out of all of the things I've got to be thankful for this Thanksgiving, it's funny I should be thankful for surviving another "Shakedown." After 18 years of suffering the indignities of being stripped searched and my cell ransacked, you would think that I'd gotten use to it. Well I haven't, and I don't see how I ever will!!!!!!!!!!!!

You would think that with the holidays, we'd get a reprieve from the oppressive conditions of solitary confinement, but sadly, no such luck. Like the movie, "The Count of Monte Cristo," every year we're given the crack-of-the-whip as an anniversary gift from the DOC. Just a little reminder that we're convicts.
Happy Holidays;);)
