Dear Mr. Rodgers:

Just to let you know, I'm working on your case. In addition to the certified issue, I think I will be able to brief the issues of the sufficiency of evidence of threats; the assault (no evidence the gun was loaded); and the gun enhancement/Cunningham issue. I know this is not all you want, but it appears to me all that the record will bear, under the deaconian rules of AEDPA. On a personal note, it is obvious to me that you paid a heavy and unjust price for not being a "good, respectful colored person," as they used to say when I was young. I'll do my best to see what I can do to minimize the damage.

Very truly yours,

John Ward

Dear Mr. Rodgers:

Here are the opening brief and excerpts. I briefed what I thought would fly. Morally, the whole situation troubles me. Legally, I think the most troublesome is the Apprendi error, which, if it flies would get you out of jail.

Very truly yours,

John Ward
