

I wish to bid you a merry-merry Christmas And A fruitful 2014.

HOWEVER, I would be a miss if I did thank you deeply for you have done for me this year 2013 the many new friends I met even if for but a few mins. To AppleShop asking me to join 99 others, How humbled I felt when I read that invitation.

BIB gave me courage to say what was on my heart and to accept what's on others no matter the differences also it has allowed me to celebrate with yall my love of the 12 step program I work daily, Share in our anniversary 67 years, Be Pathfinders

But it HAS allowed me to speak on the injustices brought against my community LGBT but also the prison community whose there use to be a time I'd

IT WAS ME, well NO MORE.

I thank each of you from the bottom of my heart, I wish you could have seen my face when I was reading a reply on night from "KAY" It was so uplifting to hear those words said when I got to the end it said love mom, I doubled over in tears

So thank you between the bars I sure hope 2014 can measure up to this year!

~~2014~~ peace,
Billy
