Young Will, Yashua, Destiny... and David.

Your Aunt Patty printed-out five fb pic's of you all for me back in November, that I still cant put away into my photo album yet 😊. Awesome! All of you look so grown-up. And I wonder if you can possibly imagine how comforting it is for me to see you all — together.

And Wow! Look at David... the youngest of you is also the biggest? Finally! I get to see a picture of you — all be it, all grow'd-up. I've so often wondered about how you fare out there son, tho I've always been confident that the Eternal One is watching over you all.

I wonder what you guys are doing this very minute as 2013 ends and 2014 begins? I'd like to lift my mead-horn to you all and make a New Year toast... but I don't drink mead any more (it tends to bring out my inner Viking). Just the same, I still want to say:

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

May you have enough happiness to make you sweet,
enough trials to make you strong,
and enough hope to make you all happy.

I Love You all so very much and wish you all the best in every way!

Be blessed
