Stillbirth

off within the walls of my insanity wondering why this must be my reality as I've created my own world, now I sit and think of why these things must happen to me is ~~that~~ it true that I am cursed to live my life within this cell harshness, pain and hopelessness rule why can't I end it all who has a right to treat me like shit lost deep within my own thoughts as a place where love has died

This death is consuming leaving me empty but alive reaching through the smoke and ash

Death Laugh

The Grim Reaper came laughing in the
talking about the game and how I didn't

A lover whom is always laughing children in the good friends that remake life seem not so

From all these things
so this is what you
eternity under my rule
until your lesson:

Laughing madly he is
I raised my hand
skeletal bones replace so this is what the

I may have lived
but it came off
now I've learned my brother, it's death

life
it right
