"Essence of The Asiatic Woman and Understanding Her Struggles"

In this essay I intend to touch on the extraordinary essence of the Asiatic woman world-wide.

It is highly essential that as Asiatic Men we come to know the beautiful nature of those who possess the keys to our ancient civilization , from then to the next generation to come.

Treasure , is a profound possession that most people learn to cherish . Where in we find value . We only discover this value if we look inside the treasure box .

The mystery of the Asiatic woman is an especial element that they possess . In which causes the Asiatic Man to rejoice in the opportunity to understand her . While the Asiatic woman feel that Asian Men do not feel obligated to explore her mystery and come to understand it , makes them feel lesser than the Greatness of what they truly are .

Understanding , is the system upon which a human's development of emotions are built . Which equals companionship , because true companionship are only felt between two people , if they feel that they understand some things about each other . Which in some cases Amounts to commonality between the two .

Likewise , if the Asiatic Man would come to know that , without the Asiatic woman he would ~~exist~~ not exist . He too , would realize that regardless of what his ego tells him , this wonderful entity some call angels are apart of him .

Now , understanding the Asiatic woman and her essence , <sup>the</sup> ~~were~~ Asiatic Man must firmly establish and embed within himself the actual reality that this Asiatic Goddess is his "Root".

" Women are just objects , there are plenty to go around " , and then calls himself a fool when he falls in love .

~~the greatest fear of life~~

There are many struggles that the Asian woman faces . Being single mothers , welfare , social deprivation , lack of assistance , poverty , lack of knowledge , lack of guidance , deprivation of a real man , deprivation of feeling cherish , lack of feelings of worth , diminishing of self respect and general respect and the list goes on and on . Even after all this , her nature is still not reduce , her heart still finds room to forgive , forget and embrace new means of companionship . In her heart still lies the seed of hope and her internal strength lies within her very being .

We all have mothers , and if we mothers are mothers we cherish them endlessly . Every woman is qualify to be a mother in most cases , and so that essence speaks for itself .
