There won't be any silly TOONS this time.

Today I will entertain the Drama Game, Though this web space was NEVER Requested or set up for me with said Drama as any part of the Idea...

This will be the ONLY Time.

#1 Thank You Charlotte Louise
for your Nice Comment

#2 Idiotbox: Thank You and everyone else there for all the hard work you do that makes all this possible for me..

GREAT JOB GUYS ☺

#3 ascadiaego: - Thank you for leaving a comment. um - yes I did the pen pal thing for a while "years" but gave up all my pen pals for the woman I love.
The specific reasoning I'll keep private, but I'd do anything for her - even stop living.

I had at one time so many pen pals
I had to make a chart like calendar to list all the names & addresses & dated boxes to mark when I received letters

So I could Get Replies out promptly...
I Got Letters every Day - many cards on every holiday even the stupid ones like flag Day & fathers day... at one point I had over 40 pen pals around the world.

* my Gmat exam * I nearly failed... ☹️ I was a little Depressed and extremely Distracted... (No excuse though) I've almost saved enough dollars to Purchase a second chance exam...

every thing in prison is more expensive, and for those who dont Get money from family it's a true struggle - You think the State Provides ^{for} every need, but they dont...

they Give 2 Pair of socks & 2 Pair of under shorts every 3 months... Those, well they're of such poor quality that they Begin to fall apart within a few weeks. They Give only 1 towel and wash cloth for the Duration of your stay, Imagine if your stay is longer than 5 years you'll have no towel only rags & strings. unless you buy one. They stopped Providing Toothbrushes.

I could go on and on about those unprovided things - but I won't.

Now - I make less than 4$ a week for working long hours outside in the weather which usually

Pays over 40$ a month, because I am being punished. I used to work in the Prison industry - in October 08 the Management hatched a Scheme to Draw more $ in Based on MY inability to stand still for any length of time and MY constant Rebuilding of equipment, ~~and~~ Furniture, ect, when work was slow. The decision was to Take on the "Referbishing" work from another institution that had closed it's Referb shop.

The admin Bought absolutely NO Tools For me, I collected + Referb'd Trash Tools - even large vises + Power Tools.

within a few months I and my Numbskull coworker (he's a nutcase) began to Referb State furniture, "chairs, Desks, lockers, storage cabinets, ^{antique} vending machines, farm equipment, Bicycles, Toys, ect. for Private individuals.)

Just Two workers - The profit that they made was Substantial. ever watch "Rick's Restoration"? Referb + Restore is very costly to the Customer + Profitible to the Co. doing the work.. well I wasn't Treated very well, was hit, Yelled at, ect BY manigment, NO I'm Not Lieing about That! I tried to file complaints But like a battered spouse learns when having her man arrested

It often Go's nowhere and the circumstances only worsen. So I Quit! ~~high $~~ ^{high $} walked out in the middle of a ~~high $~~ order and MY co-worked feared Being Treated as I ~~was~~ was, so he quit also..

the contract defaulted so the money had to be Refunded along with all the Product, $\frac{1}{2}$ which was completed..

So They're Punishing Me By working me very hard for under 80¢ a day - some days ~~to~~ 16 or more hours long - deny'n me enrollment for further education, the proper pay that MY Job title is privileged to, They stole $ from MY inmate account on 3 occasions - I have the proof on paper + in the system, Complaints Go Nowhere.

like always..

But anyway

- Dont worry though - I can ~~do~~ Take care of MY self, I just Roll with what ever they Throw at me and laugh in their faces moo-oo-ah-ah-ah

ah-ah-ah-ah

cant Punish me forever
