

Feel My Pain- Warrior Medicine

CHOQUIZTLI MOTECA< CHOQUIZTLI MOTECA
(Sorrow Over flows, Sorrow Over flows)

I know creator see's me, behind these steel doors,
As I cry to Mother earth, With my face on the floor.
I feel like my spirit in half, was torn,
Look into my eyes, you'll see they are sore.

IXAYOTL PIXAHUI< IXZYOTL PIXAHUI
(Tears Fall, Tears Fall)

I am all cried out, don't wanna cry any more,
I just want my life back ,that I once adored.
But if sufferings the reason , I was born,
Then creator, please prepare my spiritual war.

XOCHIYAOYOTL!, XOCHIYOYOTL!
(Flowery War, Flowery War!)...

Sometimes creator breaks us down, to build us back up. We go through phase of "choquiztli moteca," which enters us into "Ixayotl pixhui", the releasing of pains, physically. This is, in a sense, a purification of emotions, which awakens your "xochiyaoytl", spirit, for spiritual war. A necessary war to find your balance. A'Ho! Love you brother bear, always be there to see you dance.
