Thanks for reading my romantic poems. I write with the hope of meeting someone to write to also, someone I can be inspired to write about. Know anyone who might be interested?

Plus getting some mail at mail call is important to me; it brightens my day, and it stimulates me to write, and empowers me to keep going.

Thanks Again, C. Maxy, Stanley WI 54768-6500

Charlottelouise, do you know anyone who might need to write their thoughts to another? It is therapeutic!
