

7r2t

Bluelotus:

Thanks for your advice. Unfortunately, we do not have access to very many healthful items in the canteen. I think they sell garlic powder but the smell of garlic is offensive to many people and eating that much garlic while confined in this limited space is not advisable.

However, the canteen does sell vitamin C and I've been taking plenty of that to keep my immune system healthy.